DIVINA MISERICORDIA

Divine Mercy Sunday

Please join us this Sunday at:

2:15 PM - Exposition of the Blessed Sacrament

3:00 PM - Divine Mercy Chaplet and Benediction

Divine Mercy is the heart of the gospel. If we look at how God has revealed Himself in scripture and church tradition, we discover how mercy is essential to understanding His message of love and salvation. With this understanding of God and His revelation to us we can ask for His mercy, be merciful to others, and strive to completely trust in His son.

"A plenary indulgence, granted under the usual conditions (sacramental confession, Eucharistic communion and prayer for the intentions of Supreme Pontiff) to the faithful who, on the Second Sunday of Easter or Divine Mercy Sunday, in any church or chapel, in a spirit that is completely detached from the affection for a sin, even a venial sin, take part in the prayers and devotions held in honor of Divine Mercy, or who, in the presence of the Blessed Sacrament exposed or reserved in the tabernacle, recite the Our Father and the Credo, adding a devout prayer to the merciful Lord Jesus (e.g. Merciful Jesus, I trust in you!");

A partial indulgence, granted to the faithful who, at least with a contrite heart, pray to the merciful Lord Jesus a legitimately approved invocation."

God's mercy is Forever; it never ends,
it never runs out, it never gives up when faced with closed doors, and it never tires.
~Pope Francis~

La misericordia de Dios es eterna; no termina,
no se agota,
no se rinde ante
la adversidad
y no se cansa jamás.
~Papa Francisco~

All that we are and all that we have is a gift from God! Think of your family, your friends, your life, your talents and your money – these are all gifts from God! We aren't really owners of anything, we are merely "stewards" of the gifts God has blessed us with. We are called to be grateful and generous with all of our gifts for the benefit of others.

Loved, Lost, Found: 17 Divine Mercy Conversions

Written by Felix Carroll, this book is a collection of beautiful stories of everyday people who discover God's extraordinary mercy. They include a former abortionist, a blind man, a prisoner, a former "work-aholic", and a survivor of the "Miracle on the Hudson" plane crash, among others. The book begins with a story about Maureen Digna, whose miraculous healing in 1981 led to the beatification of Sr. Maria Faustina Kowalska. Now recognized as a saint, this nun's revelations in the 1930's, known today as the message of Divine Mercy, play a major role in each one of these conversion stories. Through the Saint, Jesus reiterates for our times the Gospel message that He is Love and Mercy itself, calling us to turn to Him in trust, receive His mercy, and extend His mercy to others.
